

VINCENZO SENATORE

Vincenzo is an Italian licensed Attorney and an English Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England & Wales. He is the founding partner of GSA Law Firm, with main office in Rome. Vincenzo focuses his practice on assisting clients in domestic and international Business Transactions and Business Litigation. He also focuses on issues pertaining to international conflicts of law and assists businesses and individuals facilitate cross-border transactions, foreign transactions and domestic transactions relating to international trade and finance. His research also touches on various aspects related to Financial Consumer Protection and Workers' Compensation Insurance in Europe. He has published his researches in scientific articles and in peer-reviewed academic journals, and he has had the honor to publish his last work on the International Review of Financial Consumers, the journal of the International Academy of Financial Consumer.

Vincenzo graduated from the University of Naples "Federico II" (Italy), Law School, and University of Salzburg (Austria). He gained a Master on Business Law at the Midiform Business School in Rome, and then he obtained his highly specialized Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in American and International Business Transaction and Trade Law at the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, Washington D.C. Prior to earning his Master of Laws degree, Vincenzo worked for the major US international law firms in Italy, gaining extensive experience defending multinational corporations in variety of complex legal issues.

Currently, Vincenzo continues to collaborate with Stanford University (CA) as visiting member at the Program on Stem Cells in Society, Stanford Center for Biomedical Ethics, in projects related to the application of patent law to biotechnological inventions.